

Please see below some Learning Means The World home learning activity ideas linked to our Summer 2 topic 'Zero to Hero'.

Link to learning	What makes someone a hero or heroine?	Eddie the Eagle	Superheroes	Walt Disney	Superheroes
Activity idea	Choose someone you know of whom you would describe as a 'hero' or 'heroine'. What are they like? Why do you respect them so much? What makes them a hero or heroine? Write down your thoughts and create a poster to share with the class.	Eddie the Eagle was a hero. Find out why and make a short book about him.	Create your own superhero identity and make a poster about them.	Create a superhero type comic book about Walt Disney, highlighting how he overcame his difficulties.	Make your own superhero mask to wear.
Link to learning	Heroes & Heroines - Michael Jordan, Thomas Edison, Malala Yousafzai, Walt Disney, Mother Teresa.	Which jobs require people to be heroes and heroines?	Christy Brown could only use his left foot to paint and write with due to suffering from paralysis as a result of cerebral palsy.	Valuing achievements and strengths	How do we respond to failure?
Activity idea	Research about the heroes and heroines we will be learning about during this topic, using the internet and non-fiction books.	Think about which jobs require people to be heroes and heroines, explain why.	Try to paint a picture like Christy Brown.	Write about your strengths and achievements, e.g. learning how to swim.	Make a list of ways to overcome failures.